

3-19-20 Worship Announcement

Good afternoon folks. I hope you are healthy and strong and full of faith because that's exactly who we are!

Your church staff is personally struggling deeply with our schedule decisions. By all means we need to be safe and prudent, but I can hardly bring myself to say that we are "cancelling corporate worship."

After talking with the deacons, here are the plans.

Sunday there will be only an 11am worship service. No Sunday School, children's church, or breakfast.

The breakfast team will however, have take-out bags available for our friends who depend on that meal.

The worship service will stream live at 11am on the church website. Worship leadership and the tech crew will be in place to bring that to you. So thanks to them and the breakfast crew!

I encourage you though, to stay home and worship with us live at 11am. If you feel compelled to attend, you are welcome to, but again, I encourage you to do all you can to curb the spread of germs by staying in.

You can also watch later in the day on the website.

Wednesday evening, our phone line prayer meeting was terrific and should be even better in the future. That dial-up information is also on the website and the church Facebook page.

If you know someone not receiving these calls, have them leave a message in the office or email me, and we'll get them added. Pay attention to the website and Facebook.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.

Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take.

Don't be impressed with your own wisdom. Instead, fear the Lord and turn away from evil.

Then you will have healing for your body and strength for your bones.

Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce.

Then he will fill your barns with grain, and your vats will overflow with good wine.

My child, don't reject the Lord's discipline, and don't be upset when he corrects you.

For the Lord corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects a child in whom he delights. (Proverbs 3)

I believe the Father desires to both love and correct us in these days. Let's take full advantage of His offer!

God bless you all!
