Dear FBC Family,

DRESSING FOR SPIRITUAL SUCCESS: THE DEVELOPMENT OF GODLY CHARACTER

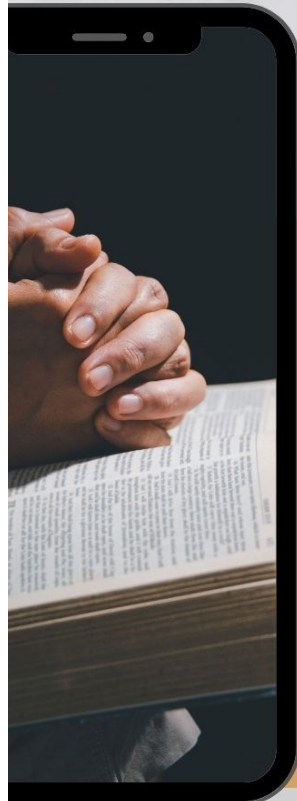

Some years back, before there was a “guide” on our TV’s that let us know what we were watching, I was “channel surfing” to see what was on. I came across the beginning of a movie that started with a young man and woman meeting for the first time at a business luncheon. As they opened the conversation she asked, “Who are you?” The show depicted all kinds of past scenarios from his life as he tried to answer that question. I don’t remember his answer or the name of the show and didn’t watch the rest of it as it veered directions I don’t go when watching something.

The question "Who are you?" is indeed profound and thought-provoking. It invites us to delve into the essence of our identity beyond the surface-level roles we play in society.

In the context of faith and spiritual transformation, this question takes on an even deeper meaning, as it challenges believers to reflect on their spiritual journey and alignment with the teachings of Jesus. The Apostle Paul's message in Colossians 3:5-17 serves as a guide for this introspection, urging followers to shed old behaviors and adopt virtues that mirror the character of Christ.

This transformative process is central to personal growth and is celebrated within the community of faith, where support and prayers for one another strengthen the collective pursuit of a Christ-like character. The anticipation of gathering together for worship is a testament to the shared commitment to this spiritual path and the joy found in fellowship. I look forward to seeing you there, Lord willing.

Pastor Joe

Prayer Call Guidelines

- Prayer calls are sent out only upon the request of a family member or from a friend who has received permission from the family.
- You are encouraged to contact the church office with your message.
- Prayer calls are sent out between 8:00am-8:00pm
- If you have an emergency, please contact Joy Stallings at (252)944-8072.
- We now have a private First Baptist Church Washington Community Group Facebook Page. Please let the church office or Joy know if you would like your prayer call shared on this page.

The Youth are looking for opportunities to bless those who could use an extra hand around their yard, house or business!
If you have a project you could use their help with, please contact Taylor Head, Youth Pastor, at (334)224-4710.
